Who, What, When, Where, Why, How of the Christian Experience

LESSON # 28

CHRISTIANS BELIEVE IN THE RESURRECTION

OBJECTIVE: This lesson delves into the profound significance of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ, examining its conquest over death, its foundational role in Christianity, and its remarkable scrutiny throughout history.

This section also presents medical evidence from an article published in the Journal of the American Medical Association, confirming Jesus' death. The Resurrection is defined as rising from the dead, distinct from temporary resuscitations like that of Lazarus. It emphasizes that Jesus' resurrection signifies the defeat of death, which has universal dominion.

The second section asserts the Resurrection as the cornerstone of Christianity. The empty tomb, the broken Roman seal, the left-behind grave cloths, and the accounts of eye-witnesses are presented as compelling evidence for the Resurrection.

The third section acknowledges the Resurrection's status as the most scrutinized event in history. It discusses how people have examined this event from different perspectives—seekers, skeptics, cynics, believers, and detractors. It mentions Frank Morrison, an English journalist who initially sought to disprove the Resurrection but ended up being convinced by the Biblical record.

The final section presents four possible explanations for the empty tomb: Jesus truly rose as He said, hallucination theory, conspiracy theory, or swoon theory. The lesson concludes by affirming that the Resurrection is not only historically validated but also foundational for the Christian faith, reminding believers of Jesus' promise and their hope of resurrection.

In summary, the lesson underscores the Resurrection's pivotal role in Christianity, examining its historical validity, transformative power, and its implications for believers' faith and future.

“Pilate was surprised to hear that he was already dead. Summoning the centurion, he asked him if Jesus had already died. [45] When he learned from the centurion that it was so, he gave the body to Joseph.” Mark 15:44-45

“Now it was the day of Preparation, and the next day was to be a special Sabbath. Because the Jews did not want the bodies left on the crosses during the Sabbath, they asked Pilate to have the legs broken and the bodies taken down. [32] The soldiers therefore came and broke the legs of the first man who had been crucified with Jesus, and then those of the other. [33] But when they came to Jesus and found that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. [34] Instead, one of the soldiers pierced Jesus' side with a spear, bringing a sudden flow of blood and water.” Jn 19:31-34
